CUPE education has posted a number of online courses. You can also register for courses outside of BC (except those limiting to Province or specific locals). Keep in mind the time difference for other Provinces (if it says 10am and is in Toronto it would be 7am here in BC). If interested in any of the courses – please contact the office.

Announcing SurreyAlerts, the City's new Alert Notification System

If you weren't already aware the City has a new app called SurreyAlerts. As a user of this app you would receive direct and up-to-date notifications on your phone regarding important events that are occurring in the City of Surrey such as: natural disasters, evacuations or instructions to staff in case of an emergency if the regular communication systems are down. You would only receive notification for emergencies or business disruptions.

If you or any family member are interested, please contact the City of Surrey for more details.

Keep us, up to date. Do you know someone who has had a baby, recently married, is off from work sick, or has had a loved one pass? Let us know, about yourself or about your co-workers. This enables us to stay in touch, offer support or make sure they have access to the proper benefits or services they require. Such as union sick bank, counselling or messages of congratulations or support from your union. Also if anyone is just wanting further
